Re: Satchell, et al. v. FedEx Express
USDC, No. Dist. of Calif.
Case No. C 03-2659 SI; C 03-2878 SI

Dear Judge Illston:

Federal Express Corporation requests an additional amount of time to comply with one particular aspect of the Court's Order of October 10, 2006.

The Court previously granted an extension until October 25, 2006. (Doc. No. 504).

The Court ordered Federal Express Corp. to produce 114 personnel files. As of today, we have produced 66 files. Additional time is needed to secure the files from various locations. Efforts have been made to not only re-contact the managers, but to also notify their superiors of our need for the files. On October 25, 2006, I requested an additional extension of time from Plaintiffs' counsel. (Attachment 1, e-mail to Guy B. Wallace). Plaintiffs did not respond to our request.

Attached please find a proposed Order which we hope the Court will enter giving Federal Express Corp. additional time to produce the files. (Attachment 2). To alleviate bothering the Court for any additional extension of time, we request an extension up through and including November 10, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,

By: /s/Frederick L. Douglas

Subject: Satchell: Additional Time for Personnel Files

Guy,

We still have not received all of the personnel files ordered by Judge Illston. We are producing additional files today. I'm requesting an additional one week extension of time. Let me know if this presents a problem.

Thanks.
